DECISION

CCO/167052

PRELIMINARY RECITALS

Pursuant to a petition filed July 06, 2015, under Wis. Admin. Code § HA 3.03, to review a decision by the Milwaukee Early Care Administration - MECA in regard to Child Care, a telephonic hearing was held on September 10, 2015.

The issue for determination is whether the agency correctly determined that petitioner was overpaid child care benefits (CCB).

There appeared at that time and place the following persons:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Milwaukee County.
2. Petitioner received CCB from August 31, 2014-October 18, 2014 for her two children.

3. On June 9, 2015 the agency issued a notice of decision to petitioner stating that she was overpaid CCB from August 31, 2014-October 18, 2014 in the amount of $629.80 (Claim # [REDACTED]) due to agency error.

DISCUSSION

Child Care Benefits are provided to working low-income families; working foster parents, kinship care relatives providing care under a court order and receiving kinship care benefits, and subsidized guardians/interim caretakers; and for individuals who are preparing for employment through Wisconsin Works, Food Share Employment and Training Program (FSET), tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), or in high school and working on their high school diploma.

In this case, the agency admits it authorized petitioner's child care benefits in error for one of her children who received full-time benefits (54 hours) when the child should have received an authorization as a school age child (15 hours). During the school term, school-age children should have either part-time authorization for before and/or after school care or may have an authorization that is available only for times when school is closed. The agency did not authorize petitioner's child accordingly. Because the authorization was enrollment based, the CCB paid for 54 hours during this time period, regardless of whether it was utilized fully.

The petitioner does not challenge the agency's calculations. However, she obviously had concerns about the fairness of the overpayment assessed against her when the agency was at fault for issuing the CCB as it did. The statute requires the department to recover all child care overpayments regardless of who is at fault. Wis. Stat. §49.195(3). The Wisconsin Administrative Code, §DCF 101.23(1)(g), explains this in the following way:

"Overpayment" or "debt" means any benefit or payment received under s. 49.148, 49.155, 49.157, or 49.19, Stats., in an amount greater than the amount that the individual, AFDC assistance group, or W-2 group was eligible to receive under applicable statutes and rules, regardless of the reason for the overpayment. An overpayment may be the result of client error, administrative error, or intentional program violation.

This means that the petitioner is responsible for the overpayment, even if the amount of the CCB was issued in error by the agency. Accordingly, I must uphold its decision.

I add, assuming petitioner finds this decision unfair, that it is the long-standing position of the Division of Hearings & Appeals that the Division's hearing examiners lack the authority to render a decision on equitable arguments. See, Wisconsin Socialist Workers 1976 Campaign Committee v. McCann, 433 F.Supp. 540, 545 (E.D. Wis.1977). This office must limit its review to the law as set forth in statutes, federal regulations, and administrative code provisions.

The petitioner may wish to contact the Public Assistance Collection Unit (PACU), which is responsible for collecting overpayments of public assistance benefits, to see if she can set up a reasonable repayment plan and avoid tax intercept. The PACU can be reached at P.O. Box 8938, Madison, WI 53708-8938 by mail, Phone 1-[REDACTED], Fax: (608) [REDACTED], email: [REDACTED], and online at <http://www.dcf.wisconsin.gov/pacu/>.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The agency correctly seeks to recover an overpayment of CCB (Claim # [REDACTED]) that occurred because it erred in authorizing the benefits.
